

Supporting Your Child in Court

Do's

- Bring quiet activities and snacks to keep them entertained
- Support them through the whole process and they are not alone
- Ensure that they are there to tell the truth
- Remind them, they are only to say what they remember

Don'ts

- Do not rehearse your child's testimony with them
- Do not bribe your child to do well
- Do not express your nervousness
- Do not give verbal or non-verbal messages while your child is on the stand (The judge may dismiss your child's testimony)
